

We should trust God. We should have trusted God. DCO should ban pillion-riding. DCO should have banned pillion-riding. They should have paid their dues. Author should expatiate on viewpoint. Man should buttress truth. We should not bracket Jews with infidels. Rulers ought to have felt for people. Accused should adduce proof of his innocence. Accused should have adduced proof of his innocence. We should eschew lie. We must have eschewed lie. God must have been worshipped. God must be feared. The poor ought not to be sneered at. Illegal vehicles should have been impounded.

Dissension should be endured.
Rigging should have been probed.
Discretionary powers should have been withdrawn. Tax evaders should be arrested. History should be studied. Demands of time should not be ignored. Evil should be hated. Evil should have been hated.
Government should rein in mili- tancy. We should have barred evil.
The U.N. should rein in every war.
Govt should arrest tax evaders. Tax evaders ought to have been arrested.
Man should be pertinacious. Leader should be dauntless. Leader should have been dauntless. Man ought to have been egalitarian. Questions should be easy. Questions ought to have been easy. Life should be safe.

Life should have been safe. Pakistan should have been self-reliant.
Parents should be altruist toward children. Politicians should be patriot.
India should not have atom bomb.
India should not have had atom bomb. We should have belief in one God. We should have good insight into way of the world. We should have had good insight into way of the world. I should have good insight into English. I should have had good insight into English. Pakistan should be a good friend. Pakistan should have been a good friend. Pakistan should have a good friend. Pakistan should have had a good friend.

You should be confident. You should have confidence. You should have been confident. You should have had confidence. You should be a good driver. You should have been a good driver. You should have a good driver. You should have had a good driver. I should have been wise. I should have had wisdom.

What should people do now? What should have we done then? How long should he sleep daily? What should one eat in illness? What should man do in compulsion? Which question should boys attempt first in paper? Where should one move for justice instead of court? What should I do if I get

Where should one go if luck does not side with one? Should I meet you? Should he come? Should court announce verdict of case early?
Should every lawyer plead to judge?
Should judge heart out lawyer?
Should one quibble with God?
Should I wait for good time?

The literate are cautious and the illiterate are maniacs. Women are jealous and men foolish. The poor are wretch and the rich arrogant. Officers are callous and subordinates are compelled.
The dead are free and the alive are in troubles. Sinners are better than hypocrites. Truth is mostly bitter.

China has been our friend since the start. African countries have always been destitute. Pakistan has been victim of terrorism. Parents have been our well-wishers. Rulers have been dishonest. Officers had been arrogant ever since. Cuba had been anti-America since the start. Man has always been selfish.

Infant has to weep for milk. The weak have to incur excesses of the powerful. Every man will have to taste death one day. Man has to resign himself to death. Truth had to face distrust. I had to lie many times. America had to apologise to Pakistan for Salalah attack.

You are bound to go there. We were bound to pay money. I shall be bound to ask important questions. Heart is bound to beat whole life. We were bound to listen to futile lecture. President was bound to answer assembly. Trump is bound to fulfil his promise. Man is bound to die one day. The United Nations is bound to solve Kashmir problem. Strive for victory but leave result up to God. Put a price on goods and buy on discount. Pin hope on God, success is not far. Either stop reading or stop to read. Do not raise hopes too high for future. Quit lying and put matters in order.

Speaking truth many times costs one dear. Lying repeatedly makes man unreliable.

Quibbling with God is considered anathema. Leaving friend in lurch in hard time is abyss of selfishness. Keeping fingers crossed till last moment is manifestation of fortitude. Deriding evil in heart is the least condition of faith. Remembering God makes man pious. Believing hearsays hints at frailty in character.

Everyone starts remembering God in hard time. Children start to weep. Failed people start cursing luck. People in old age start remembering death. Child starts crawling at the age of six months. He started to laugh abruptly. Hindustan started to beset Pakistan at the very outset.

Pakistan started making progress in Ayub era. Hindustan started crying foul over our success. Third world will start suspecting Britain next year. Europe will soon start condemning America. People will start trusting new government.