

These sentences are not as easy as we considered. Man is not as powerful as he has been considering himself. His logic is as cogent as your statement. His logic was as cogent as your statement is. Afghanistan has proved as scheming as India. Suspicion is as dangerous as fanaticism. Maniacs are as callous as goons. America was never as opulent as it is today. Pakistan was never in troubles as much as it is today. Mercenaries are as greedy as religious people. Mercenaries become as avaricious as religious people.

Movies are not as interesting as they are shown. Childhood is not as cherished as it is claimed. Products are not as awesome as they are shown. Because of experience, traders become as adroit as fraudsters.

Children do not suffer hardships half as many as parents for children. IMF gave Pakistan loan quarter as much as it had promise. Benazir was not even half as intelligent and clairvoyant as Zardari is. The moon is not quarter as distant from earth as the sun. Human beings are not quarter as cruel as giants. No other animal sides with man as much as dog. Woman does not adore man fourth as much as man adores woman. Nothing makes man fearless as much as truth.

For being introspect, saint resolves his problems by himself. For being astute, every officer should lead enviable life. For having experience, parents take good decisions about children. For having intelligence, human beings should be better than animals. For having more facilities, the rich spend carefree life.

KEY PAGE NINE: COL TWO

Would that Pakistan had beaten India. Would that Pakistan had made progress. Would that rulers had feared God. Would that state had been preferred to person. Would that rulers had not been stooges of America. Would that fraudsters had been banished. Would that Afghanistan had not been a land-locked country. Would that no country had been friend of Hindustan. Would that man had had patience.

If the sun rises temperature will surge. If he comes I shall go. If you forget I shall remind you. If good food does not benefit you you will fall ill. If Pakistan makes progress India will put spoke in its wheel. If teacher quits arbitrary marking I shall get full marks in every paper. If he is grieved I shall cheer up him. If you are my friend I shall be your host. If people are honest Pakistan will prosper. If there is no heart man will be beast.

If apple had benefitted you you would have recovered. If Benazir had not sacked Hameed Gul then president would have not dissolved assemblies. If Pakistan had taken revenge on India for aggression Afghanistan would have baulked at stability of Pakistan. If Lady Diana had married Dodi Fayed, the British royal family would have been shocked. If you had not been impulsive you would have been successful man. If there had been no sun there would have not been life on earth. If I had been glum he would have been glad. If man had been beast the world would have been hell. If the nation had been sensible rulers would have been callous. If he had been ill he would have not been here.

If Modi and Karzai had been pacifist neither would have meddled in Balochi-stan. If Putin and Obama had been upright neither would have unleashed bloodshed in Syria. If I had not had belief in God devil would have perverted me. If Pakistan had not had atom bomb America would have given us more grant. If I had had licence to kill all traitors would have been in graves.

KEY PAGE NINE: COL THREE

We are given to believing rulers. All students used to copy off their friends. Politicians were given to making tall claims. All dictators used to deride politicians. Government is used to issuing false statements. All governments used to issue false statements. Women are addicted to railing against men. Successful historians used to cover up tyrannies of kings. America used to intimidate its stooges. We used to deposit our dues in time.

He felt as if he had died. He sued Imran for damages as if he himself had been saint. She swore at husband as if she had herself been husband.

Trump was already posing as if he had been president of America. He posed as if nothing had happened. We posed as though nothing had changed. America posed as if it had won war against the Taliban. Hypocrites pose as if they were truthful. The whites consider as if the whole world was made for them. Officers behave everyone as if they were answerable to none. Politicians do mudslinging as if they themselves had been pious. Liars accuse others as if they were truthful. Ministers deride people as if they were indigents. Some indigents pose as if they were billionaire. Human beings sin as if they were immortals.

Children want to be loved. Children want to be loved by everyone. Men want to be considered superior by women. America wants to be recognized as superpower. Every truthful wants to be trusted by others. God wants man to feel for fellow human beings. God warns human beings to escape devil titillations. God warns human beings to worship him only. Quran wants man to escape worldly lures. Europe has been planning to make Asia its colony.